INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR THE LAW OF THE SEA (IFLOS)
SUMMER ACADEMY 2011

Dear Hydrographer,

1 The IHB is pleased to provide you with the following information provided by IFLOS regarding their Summer Academy 2011. Further information regarding the venue and programme are in the attachments.

The International Foundation for the Law of the Sea, chaired by Professor Doris König of Bucerius Law School, will hold its fifth Summer Academy at the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea in Hamburg from 24 July to 20 August, 2011.

The Summer Academy is a centre of excellence for studies of both International Law of the Sea and Maritime Law and includes related topics of economic and natural sciences. It brings together a prestigious faculty from among the judges of the Tribunal, professors and professionals from the maritime field with a dedicated group of some 30 highly-motivated participants from around the world. For further information please refer to the enclosed flyer and the preliminary Schedule.

As a rule, applicants should hold a Masters degree (LL.M or equivalent). A limited number of scholarships and travel grants will be available. Subject to availability of places, exceptions may be considered for Master students or professionals in the maritime field and, in rare cases, for excellent undergraduates focusing on Law of the Sea or Maritime Law.

Applications are invited at:

<http://www.iflos.org/en/summer-academy/application-2011.aspx>,

the application period will expire on 30 April 2011.

We would be grateful if you would further distribute the announcement about this event and encourage potential candidates to apply. Recommendations are welcome. For further communication and enquiries please contact the Foundation at:

summeracademy@iflos.org.

On behalf of the Directing Committee
Yours sincerely,
