

Tilemachos Bourtzis- Panteion University, Athens, Greece, holds a BA on International and European Studies and a MSc on Environmental Policy and Management. Currently, he is a PhD Can. on the Law of the Sea and the title of his Dissertation is “Marine Scientific Research in Modern Law of the Sea. The Greek Case. Special Issues and Problems of the Aegean Sea”. He is a Researcher with the European Centre for Environmental Research and Training and member of the teaching staff of the International and European Studies Programme of Panteion University.

Gerasimos Rodotheatos- Panteion University, Athens, Greece, holds a BA on International and European Studies and an MA on Environmental Governance and Sustainable Development. Currently, he is a PhD Can. on the Law of the Sea and the title of his Dissertation is “International Legal Status of Artificial Islands and Structures. Creation, Use and Decommissioning. A Legal Approach”. He is a Researcher with the European Centre for Environmental Research and Training and member of the teaching staff of the International and European Studies Programme of Panteion University.