

Dr. Pieter Bekker is a Partner and Head of Public International Law at Crowell & Moring LLP in New York City. He concentrates in public international law advice and international arbitration and litigation involving private and sovereign parties. A citizen of The Netherlands, he served as a staff lawyer in the Registry of the International Court of Justice (ICJ) in The Hague in the 1990s and has been involved in some 20 cases before the ICJ. He chairs the Committee on Intergovernmental Settlement of Disputes of the International Law Association's American Branch and has served as an elected member of the Nominating Committee and the Executive Council of the American Society of International Law. He sits on the Advisory Board of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration (ITA) and is a member of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) Commission on Arbitration. Dr. Bekker obtained basic and doctoral law degrees in Dutch and International Law from Leiden University in The Netherlands and a Masters degree from Harvard Law School on a Fulbright grant. The author of three books and over 100 articles on international dispute resolution, Dr. Bekker teaches International Investment Law & Arbitration at Columbia Law School. He has been peer-selected as a New York "Super Lawyer" in Alternative Dispute Resolution continuously since 2006. He also is listed in the inaugural edition of Who's Who in Public International Law.