

IHO Disclaimer Notice for SCUFN

The IHO Secretariat maintains the IHO website in general and SCUFN webpages in particular to support the work of the IHO and as a service to IHO Member States as well as a courtesy to any entity or person who may choose to access the website.

Information appearing on the IHO website:

- is for general information purposes only;
- is not intended to provide, or be relied upon as, legal advice to any individual or entity;
- is not intended to represent or reflect an interpretation by the IHO or any of its Member States of any law or policy referenced; and
- is offered without prejudice to, or limitation on, any view or position that may be taken by the IHO or an IHO Member State regarding any matter or issue.

Links to the IHO website are permitted. The fact that a website is linked to the IHO website does not indicate that the IHO has any responsibility for the content of that site, nor does it constitute an official endorsement or approval by the IHO or any of its Member States of that site or the information that it contains.

Proposals to SCUFN made by national authorities or individuals do not reflect in any way the view of the IHO and there is no endorsement of the content by IHO. All proposals to SCUFN remain completely under the responsibility of the proposers.
